

Logo

The Indiana Tech logo represents us at the very highest level. It acts as our signature and stamp of quality. It is, and should always be, the most consistent component in our communications.

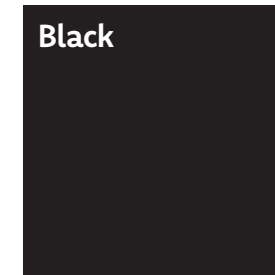

Use only the provided files of the original mark. Under no circumstances should the logo be redrawn, re-proportioned or modified in any manner. Elements of the logo should not be separated or repositioned. Do not use drop shadows, bevels, 3-D effects, animation, embosses, glows or outlines.

Logo

The Indiana Tech logotype is never to be placed in a sentence.

USE IN A SENTENCE

GOOD EXAMPLE

When used in a sentence, Indiana Tech should simply be spelled out in the chosen fonts like the rest of the words. No special treatment is needed.

BAD EXAMPLE

Do not use the INDIANA TECH logotype in a sentence.

BAD EXAMPLE

Do not color the letters that make the words Indiana Tech look like the logo in a sentence.

BAD EXAMPLE

Never use a different font to spell Indiana Tech in the middle of a sentence.

USING DISPLAY FONTS

In some circumstances, a display font will be used to spell Indiana Tech in the title of a brochure or in a special type-treatment on a postcard, etc. This is OK, but do not try to re-create the logo using other fonts and do not mix and match orange and black with the letters to emulate the logo.

ACCEPTABLE
